INDIANAPOLIS – (Aug. 13, 2009) Broad Ripple Park will reopen its Canine Companion Zone on Friday, Aug. 14, 2009, after a three-week closure for repairs, renovations and turf improvements. The City of Indianapolis Department of Parks and Recreation invested $57,693 in improvements to the drainage system of the popular bark park to prevent flooding. The renovations included planting of new sod to replace weeds and help prevent mud puddles during rainfall.

The Canine Companion Zone is open daily from dawn to dusk. Annual Pooch Passes are available for $75 or daily passes for $5. Updated vaccination records documenting current inoculations for rabies, Parvo, Distemper and Bordetella must be shown upon purchase of Pooch Pass or daily pass.
